

Unit Overview: Hibernation Hotel by John Kelly

Year: 1

Lesson 1 I am learning to use adjectives in sentences. Children will use adjectives to describe the appearance of a brown bear.	Lesson 2 I am learning to use words to join sentences together. Children will join sentences about the appearance of a bear together with the conjunction 'and' and 'but'.
Lesson 3 I am learning to find information for a non-chronological report. Children will work in mixed ability groups to find information for a report about the brown bear, skunk, raccoon and beaver.	Lesson 4 I am learning to write a non-chronological report. Children will use the information they found in lesson 3 to write a short non-chronological report.
Lesson 5 I am learning to predict what will happen in a story. Children will listen to the story of 'Hibernation Hotel' and use clues to predict what will happen next at various parts of the story.	Lesson 6 I am learning to use the suffix 'ing'. Children will investigate adding the suffix 'ing' to verbs that occur in Hibernation Hotel.
Lesson 7 I am learning to use the suffix 'ed'. Children will continue investigating using suffixes to the end of verbs.	Lesson 8 I am learning to use role-play to plan a piece of writing. Children will re-enact the story in small groups to prepare for writing the story in lesson 9.
Lesson 9 I am learning to retell a familiar story. Children will retell the story of 'Hibernation Hotel'.	Lesson 10 I am learning to check and edit my writing. Children will use editing stations to check and improve their writing.

Book: Hibernation Hotel by John Kelly (Little Tiger Press Ltd)