To be able to explore Roman Numerals up to 100
Starter:
Which one doesn't belong?

Explain your answer

MathShed
t
$4 / 3$

To be able to explore Roman Numerals up to 100 MathShed Activity 1 :
The diagrams below show a number in Roman Numerals, numerals and words. Complete the missing sections.

To be able to explore Roman Numerals up to 100
Activity 2 :
Complete the function machines:

To be able to explore Roman Numerals up to 100 MathShed
Activity 3 :
Complete the calculation below:

XXVI

LXXIV
$=$ $\square$

How many more Roman Numerals addition sentences that total the same amount can you think of?

To be able to explore Roman Numerals up to 100 MathShed Evaluation:

Is Astrobee's statement always true, sometimes true or never true? Explain your answer.

