

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Starter:

Thinking about what you do before and after school... Which one does not belong?

Explain your answer.

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Activity 1:

Ahmed is filling his fish tank with water. Match each image to its word.

before

after

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Activity 2:

Create your own before and after stories.

before

after

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Activity 3:

Match the words first, then and finally to their images for drinking the juice.

first

then

finally

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Activity 4:

Create your own first, then, finally (or first, next, now) stories.

first

then

finally

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Activity 5:

Match the activities to before falling asleep and after falling asleep.

brushing teeth

snoring

bedtime stories

dreaming

dreaming

before falling asleep

after falling asleep

To be able to use before and after to describe, order and sort events

Evaluation:

People should brush their teeth
before going to school or work.

Is Astrobee's statement true or false?
Explain your answer.